Direct School Admission for Secondary Schools (DSA-Sec)

DSA-Sec allows P6 students to apply to some secondary schools before taking the Primary School Leaving Examination (PSLE).

Direct School Admission (DSA) Route

- For students with talents and achievements beyond those that can be demonstrated at PSLE
- To seek admission to schools that can develop their talents (academic and non-academic) further even before taking PSLE
 - The final PSLE score needs to satisfy the minimum score for the Posting Group of the respective schools

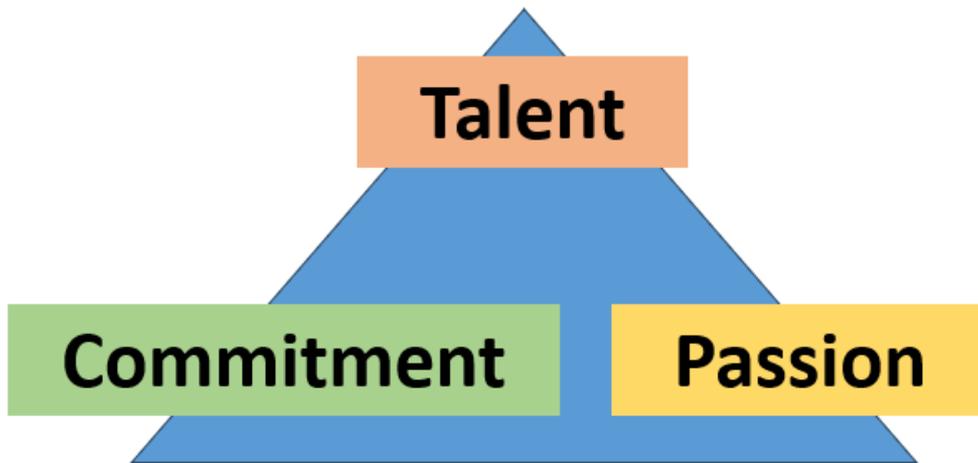

Direct School Admission (DSA)

Areas of Strengths

- Sports and games
- Visual, literary and performing arts
- Debate and public speaking
- Science, mathematics and engineering
- Languages and humanities
- Uniformed groups
- Leadership

Direct School Admission for Secondary Schools (DSA-Sec)

- Is DSA-Sec an appropriate pathway for your child?
- Carefully consider
 - ✓ your child's strengths and interests, and
 - ✓ the school's programmes and their ability to develop specific talent.

ENTERING SCHOOLS THROUGH DSA-SEC

- There is no change to the application and selection process with the shift to Full SBB.
- If your child has specific talents and strengths beyond the PSLE (e.g. areas such as sports, performing arts and leadership), consider the Direct School Admission-Secondary (DSA-Sec) as an alternative admission pathway to access secondary schools that have talent development programmes in these areas.

Understanding Mental Health and Well-Being

Mental health: Beyond what you might expect

What is Mental Health?

Good mental health is more than just the absence of mental illness.

It refers to a state of well-being where we realise our potential and can cope with the varying emotions and normal stresses that we all experience in our daily lives.

Areas of Concern in Upper Primary

- Understanding your child's mental health and well-being
 - Academic pressures and expectations
 - Digital wellness challenges (Cyber Wellness, Online Gaming, Cyberbullying, Exposure to Pornography)
- Recognising when your child may need extra support
- Supporting and guiding your child through these challenges

Why Should We Be Concerned About Our Children's Mental Health?

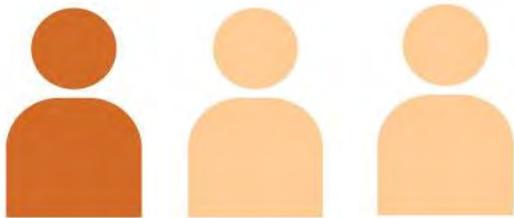

What does the data tell us?

Did you know?

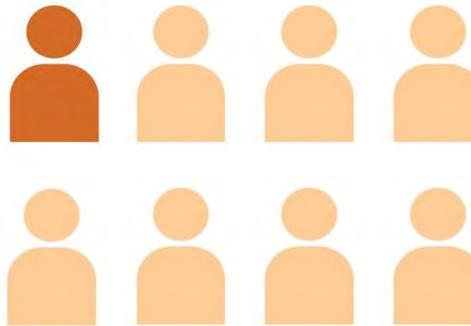

Singapore Youth Epidemiology and Resilience Study (2023)*

1 in 3 youths (37.2%) in Singapore, aged 10-18, experienced symptoms such as sadness, anxiety and loneliness⁺

⁺ based on self-reporting scores

1 in 8 youths (12%) had a current mental health condition

Common mental health conditions experienced by children and youth include:

Generalised Anxiety Disorder
(2.75% of those diagnosed)

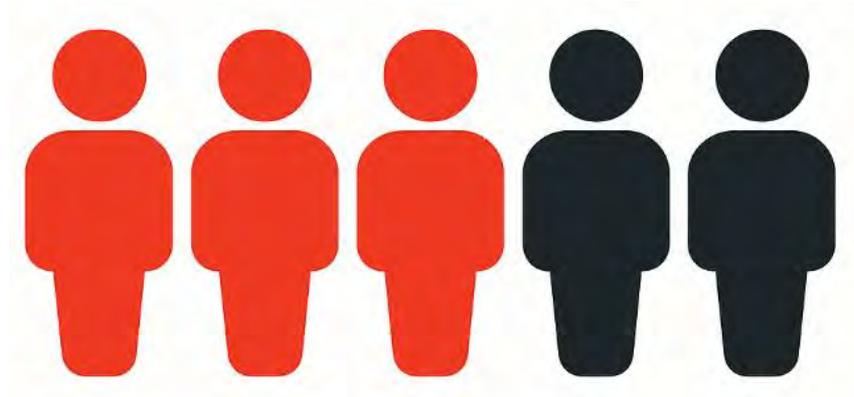

Major Depressive Disorder
(2.37% of those diagnosed)

Mental health one of the top reasons primary school kids called helpline in 2023

Mental health became one of the top five most common topics that Singapore's young children anonymously asked the Tinkle Friend service in 2023, alongside issues related to school, peers and family.

Mental health-related concerns among these children – mainly aged 13 and below – include self-image struggles and emotional distress that presents as fear, anger, anxiety and low moods.

Among the children who called or chatted with Tinkle Friend in 2020, almost half were upper primary school pupils aged 10 to 12.

The Crucial Role of Parents

Your partnership with the school: Supporting your child together.

Did you know?

About 7 in 10 of our Primary 6 students indicated the following in the Termly Check-in Survey:

70 % of our students turn to their family when they need help.

Importance of Family Support

The Termly Check-In Surveys show that families are a predominant source of support when Primary School students are feeling stressed or anxious — demonstrating the vital role parents play in their children's mental well-being.

Parents are a predominant source of support for their child.

Your child may be experiencing

- Fatigue from balancing a more demanding upper primary curriculum with heavier CCA and other commitments
- Stress and anxiety from the preparation needed for Weighted Assessments (WA), the End-of-Year Examination (EYE), and the upcoming PSLE
- Worry about failing or not meeting expectations set by themselves or by others (e.g. peers, parents, teachers)
- Disappointment when results fall short of hopes as well as the time and effort invested

Supporting your child

Tips on how you can support your child

- Remind your child that assessments are important ways to understand gaps in learning and to use feedback from these assessments to improve.
- Emphasise that these assessments do not define a child's worth or future.
- Recognise and affirm your child's effort rather than just the outcomes. Celebrate small improvements.
- Support your child in viewing setbacks as learning opportunities, while acknowledging feelings of frustration or sadness as part of the process. This will help promote a growth mindset – the belief that their abilities can be developed through dedication, effort, and learning from challenges.

Supporting your child

Tips on how you can support your child

- Manage your own expectations and stress, including in relation to PSLE performance and secondary school choices, as these can place additional pressure on your child. Reassure your child that they are loved regardless of academic performance.
- Guide your child in drawing up a balanced schedule with time for revision, homework, play, exercise, and rest.
- Together with the child, agree on realistic and specific goals so that revision is manageable and is something a child feels he has control over.
- Find out exactly what your child is struggling with so you can get the right help. This also teaches them that asking for support is normal.

ARE YOU FEELING TOO MUCH STRESS?

We can LOOK out for:

- Overly tired, sad, worried or upset
- Often posting moody messages or talking about hurting yourself
- Keeping away from people you are usually close to, or being quieter than usual

✓ Things You Can Do

Listen attentively. Maintain eye contact and put away your devices to show that you are paying attention.

Ensure that the environment is conducive and comfortable for your child. E.g. recreate an environment where your child had previously opened up to you, and have the conversation in a place where your child feels they have privacy.

Listen to understand, instead of listening in order to give advice and offer solutions.

Take a step back to calm down if things get heated, and return to the conversation after calming down.

Check that your child is comfortable with you sharing what they have told you with other people. If you have to do so out of concern for their safety, explain to your child why it is necessary.

○ Things You Can Say

- Use open ended questions to find out more about your child's perspectives and feelings.

How did that make you feel?

- Acknowledge that your child's opinions and feelings are valid, even if you disagree with them or do not fully understand them.

I hear that you are feeling frustrated.

- Let your child know that it is natural to experience these feelings, and that you experience them too.

I can see why you are upset.
I would be too.

- If you are not sure what else to do, you can let your child know you are concerned for them, and offer support or a listening ear.

How can I help? What support do you need from me?
